Cornerstone Christian Fellowship

JUNE 2013

FOCUS: THE BOOK CLUB

A Good Read and More

By Kenneth McMahon

It's hard to believe but the Book Club turns ONE this year! The month of June sees the 12th book discussion with "Making Life Work" by Bill Hybels, a practical application of the Book of Proverbs.

A year ago, we saw the need to enrich the lives of believers and encourage them in their Christian walk by exploring various books relevant to the Christian faith. The Book Club provided an opportunity for people to come together, discuss and share their opinions on something they've read.

We expected that our values and morals will be challenged if not strengthened in the light of what God says in His word. As it is written in the Scriptures,

*'They will all be taught by God.'
Everyone who listens to the Father and learns from him comes to me. "*
(John 6:45).

Hopefully The Book Club will rekindle the art of reading a book and allow folks to reap the benefits from doing so.

Some of the book discussions we've had included important questions in life such as your purpose, how you can develop your friendship with God, what matters most, restoring broken fellowships, using what God gave you, and balancing your life. The books we have read are as follows:

1. Through Cloud and fire by Walter Lowndes – paralleled the Christian walk with the Exodus
2. Mr God, this is Anna by Fynn, the relationship of a wee girl and God.
3. Christ for Real by Charles W. Price – exploring a deeper relationship with Jesus.
4. Living under the Volcano by Christine Hailes Perillo – the adventures of an English missionary/emigrant to the Philippines

5. My Heart's Cry by Anne Graham Lotz –explored the desire for more of Jesus in our lives.
6. He Gave Us a Valley by Helen Roseveare, -the story of a medical missionary in Africa.
7. The Christ of Christmas by James M. Boice –looked at the Jesus of the advent season from the across the testaments.
8. Intimate Friendship with God by Joy Dawson
9. Baght Singh of India
10. Longing for a Homeland by Lynn Anderson
11. Murder Most Holy by Paul Doherty – a Medieval murder mystery story

Our informal group generally has a good munch at our very own Cornerstone Café during which we share fellowship. We then retreat to our newly refurbished lounge to discuss the book of the month. Everyone has a chance to participate with a variety of points from the books are raised. Feel free to come along any month. The CAP Money Course is a revolutionary money management course that teaches people budgeting skills and a simple, cash-based system that really works..

This course will help anyone to get more in control of their finances, so they can save, give and prevent debt. The CAP Money Course is a course devised by the award winning debt counselling charity, Christians Against Poverty Siubhan and Teri Smith have already been trained as Money Coaches and Mary Douglas will soon be attending their training. They will then conduct the training within the fellowship focusing only on principles on money management.

Participants will not be asked to disclose any of their personal financial issues. Another course is scheduled to run probably in October. Details can be obtained @ www.capuk.org

The men's group are now on a summer break and will restart September.

Anyone leaving information for others at the admin desk, please label clearly.
