When Christians Make a Stand

On 2008, Hazel Mary and Peter Bull refused to let civil partners Steven Preddy and Martyn Hall stay in a double room at their B&B Chymorvah House in Marazion in Cornwall. In 2011 a judge at Bristol County Court concluded that the Bulls had acted unlawfully and ordered them to pay a total of £3,600 damages

On May 2015, County Antrim-based Ashers Baking Company was ruled to have discriminated against a gay customer when it refused to make a cake with a pro-gay marriage slogan. The company was ordered to pay £500 in compensation to customer Gareth Lee.

Now, we will get the opportunity to hear why these Christians decided to make a stand on their beliefs at all cost. On 3rd of November, The GLO Centre will be the venue for their voices to be heard. If you wish to hear them, please be at 78 Muir Street, Motherwell, ML1 1BN at 7:30 in the evening.

For details, speak with Pastor Alan Welsh.

"God speaks to us – He wants to guide us and protects us. He wants us to be walking into the future He has planned for us. But sometimes God is silent. We will explore why this is so."

Local Schools Harvest Offering for Bethlehem Food Bank

Several local Schools gave their offerings for the Harvest Thanksgiving festival to Bethlehem Food Bank, a generous twist to the traditional British celebration for the many blessings we have received all year round. Thanks to all the teachers, the school children and their parents!

Ravenswood Primary, Abronhill Primary with Miss Donnally, Baird Memorial Primary with Ms Foster and Carbrain Primary with Mrs McFarlane who hosts Bethlehem's clothes and textile Table every Thursday.

A Special "Thank You" to the Sharp family and all who gave in lieu of presents to celebrate the dedication of Graeme & Claire Sharp's latest addition to their family – Baby Gabriel – upon the family's request. Total money received was £312.50 which was divided between Bethlehem and Compassion.

STOBO SPA DAY 2016

Mary Douglas is now taking bookings for the next Women's Spa Date in September 2016. Plenty time to save up for it, ladies. "You're worth it!"

Joined by a 20-piece orchestra as they celebrate the Christmas story. For tickets and enquiries, please speak with Vivianne Crispin.

Ladies Christmas Dinner
