

Go beyond the Cross

Contributed by David Rae

Every year, thousands of people climb a mountain in the Italian Alps, passing the "stations of the cross" to stand at an outdoor crucifix.

One tourist noticed a little trail that led beyond the cross. He fought through the rough thicket and, to his surprise, came upon another shrine, a shrine that symbolized the empty tomb. It was neglected.

The brush had grown up around it. Almost everyone had gone as far as the cross, but there they stopped.

Far too many have gotten to the cross and have known the despair and the heart break. Far too few have moved beyond the cross to find the real message of Easter. That is the message of the empty tomb.

The problem with discipleship today is that we don't pass on to faithful people the things we learn from God (2 Timothy 2:2). Oftentimes, we live a life of inconsistency where we do not live out the things we teach and say. The call is for us to rise up to the challenge of authenticity and leave a Godly legacy.
