

CCF Update

Cornerstone Get Ready

Due to the difficulty of not having enough people to Oversee and Teach in the House Groups this term, I am arranging for us all to meet in Cornerstone House for the coming term. This will mean a different format. It will still include Bible study, Discussion, Teaching and Midweek Church, but It is essential that we “do not give up the habit of meeting together as some are in the habit of doing” (Hebrews 10:25a).

As a church we are taking the opportunity to connect with the community in different ways through Bethlehem, CAP Course and we are about to launch another Alpha Course. Each of these ministries allows us to display and share the Gospel both in practical and spiritual ways.

Alongside these ministries, having less midweek meetings will hopefully encourage more of us to be involved/support. It gives each of us more opportunity to take part without fear of overload in an already busy life.

As a Church, we need to be ready to help, get alongside and support the ministries within Cornerstone as we continue to connect with the community we live in, I am confident there will be new people who come along searching for something more in their life. Our God has called us to preach the Good News “Work willingly at whatever you do, as though you were working for the Lord rather than for people.” (Colossians 3: 23)

The “meeting together” part of our spiritual walk with the Lord is essential to maintain your own personal strength in Christ, “but let us encourage one another and all the more since as you see the Day approaching” (Hebrews 10:25b).

Cornerstone get ready, be equipped to share the Good News.

Prepare your Mind. Prepare your Heart. Prepare the Way.

“Do not give up the habit of meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but let us encourage one another and all the more since you see the Day approaching. Hebrews 10:25

Cornerstone Care Team

We now have a number of people who have signed up to become a member of our Care Team (always room for more of course). However, unless we know about a need we will not be able to help, so we need everyone in Cornerstone to be aware of each other and notify Alan or Mary if you think someone may need support. We appreciate your cooperation.

Lord of the Morning

O praise you Lord of the morning,
Lord of light clean air, Lord of snow.

O praise you Lord for all nature,
Your creation makes my heart glow.

Clothed in white are the shrubs and trees,
As they hold up their branches to adore,
I holdup my head as the sight
Makes me love my Creator more.

O praise you Lord of the morning,
To you I surrender my heart,
You are my friend, my beloved companion,
Let your grace from me never depart.

My life is fulfilled full of purpose,
Since you answered my cry of distress,
O Lord of the morning grow more and more,
So that I may grow less and less.

O praise to you Lord of the morning,
I give thanks to our triune God.
Praise for the joy of creation,
Praise to our Living Lord.
