Cornerstone's Got Talent

Christine Sakakibara

There will be a special meeting held in Cornerstone Cafe on Monday 15th October at 7.30 The guest speaker is Christine Sakakibara, a Christian who lives in Israel and can give us up to date information about what is happening there just now.

Christine Sakakibara is a wonderful example of how “just one person” can make a huge difference in thousands of lives. Divine intervention is the story of her life. Originally from Australia, she moved to Israel 40 years ago to become a nun. But, God had other plans for her life. In 1974 being saved by grace and filled with the Spirit, she started her family and her ministry, completely assimilating into the Israeli culture.

Her love for God and her family spill over to her neighbours whether they are a Holocaust survivor down the street or the Southern Lebanese refugees living on Israel's northern border, who still refer to her as “the angel of the north ”. Christine's definition of neighbour is anyone whose pain has reached her ears, and with an enormous determination she does what needs to be done to help remedy that pain. Christine has a passion that drives her to let suffering people know, with God's help, there is an answer.

Christine served on the leadership team at Narkis street congregation in Jerusalem for many years and now leads the prayer ministry and works primarily to raise funds and increase awareness for the poor and needy in Israel. She has recently established a non-profit mission-based organization called Fields of Mercy as a ministry of mercy to the down trodden, disenfranchised and hurting.

As a sought after speaker in Israel, Asia and throughout the United Kingdom, Christine Sakakibara has a unique ability to clear up myths and depict what life is really like in Israel. She is no stranger to danger and difficulties and as an over-comer, able to illustrate the power of God in people’s lives, today. Christine will challenge and inspire you through her testimonies to move further into the purposes of God for your life. An ordinary person with an extraordinary God.
